A Message from Price Warwick, Jr. Business Manager/Financial Secretary

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

The RENEW group had a meeting before the April general membership meeting, so there was no food to enjoy, but we still had 74 members attend.

At the meeting we approved the pension applications for Jeffrey Edgemon, Stephen Watkins, Joe Almanza, and Wayne Scott. We wish them a long and healthy retirement.

The Basic Estimating class was completed on April 11th. An Advanced Estimating class will be planned in the future. Email NECA at steve@ntxneca.org, to get on the list for this class. Call the Training Center at 972-266-8383 for OSHA 10 or 30 training. Email pwarwick3@ibew20.org, to put your name on the list for Code of Excellence or Steward Training classes.

The Picnic invitation is enclosed, so be sure to get your RSVP card back to the hall by the deadline so we can have enough food for everyone in attendance.

Steve Henninger won the April monthly dues door prize. No one won the recurring door prize, so it will be $576.00 at the May 7th meeting.

The Municipal Elections for many cities are coming up, so be sure to get out and vote for the candidates that have shown to be a friend to Labor. “HAS BEEN CLUB” NEWS
BY: JAMES CREECH, RETIRED MEMBER

Head potentate, Thomas Gywen Wilcoxon opened the March meeting and promptly left to take care of more important things. Foot potentate, Tony Loria finished the meeting for that other cat. After Gywen left, Dennis Rook moved to return the door prize drawing each meeting. One important change, you do not have to be present to win. Walter D. Dolehite did our head count in the absence of head counter Tom Randolph. Before I forget, Jerry Southerland did not win. The Lovelace twins, Howard and Felix were not present, but the Creech twins, Mike and Mark were. Two Charles's, McClure and Smith showed up. Phil Morton stayed for the door prize drawing. He did not win. And the winner is Jerald McCord.

Fraternally,

Price Warwick, Jr.
