A Message from A. C. McAfee
Business Manager/Financial Secretary

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

WORKING ASSESSMENTS

If you are one of the members who still owes Working Assessments, because they were not deducted by your employer, you can make payment arrangements with the Local Union to get your business in order. Contact Linda Madden at the LU Business Office, 972-263-1122 ext. 105.

Working Dues (Assessments) are a legal and binding debt, and the Dept. of Labor insists that the Financial Secretary make every effort to collect the dues. The debt is one that can be collected through civil action, even if someone is no longer a member of the Local Union. The Local Union can also file charges against any member who is in arrears.
