HAS BEEN CLUB NEWS

By: James Creech, Retired Member

Well they didn't replace me, so I will report on Feb. 2020 "Has Been Club" meeting. If you weren't there we probably talked about you. Along with lots of other people. Some of the talk was about Ella and Bobby Abbott, which reminded me of Tommy Abbott and how much fun he made our Awards parties with his singing and dance music in days past. "Those were the days", as Archie sang or would it be sung?

Another old member remembered was Sam Robinson and his famous story about the log chain voltage tester. Only thing I can add to that story is you never split the cost of a six pack with Sam or L.O. Spearman.

Members present and sharing their stories were Sorry Shot Tom (didn't kill a deer) Randolph, Dennis Rook, Charles (hog problem) McClure, Billy Thomas, Head Potentates Thomas Gwen Wilcoxon and Goober Gwen Morris, foot potentates Bobby McPherson, Jerald McCord, Phil Morton and no potentate Charles Smith.

Fraternally,

Price Warwick, Jr.
