Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Ronald Scott, Sr. Passes

Bro. Scott, an officer of the Local Union and a member of the IBEW for 53 years passed away on Saturday, November 9, 2013.

He served as the Local Union 59 Recording Secretary for decades before the merger of the Dallas and Fort Worth Local Unions. And he served after the merger for years until his passing at age 77.

There was good a good crowd at this year's Annual Awards Banquet.

We enjoyed the good company and good barbeque from Coburn's of Fort Worth.

Along with Bro. Krumm, there were 46 others receiving awards. In all, close to 250 people attended including award winners, members, family and friends.

The "runner up" for most years of service receiving an award was Bro. Alvin C. Gary, Jr. receiving his 65 year award.

"HAS BEEN CLUB"

By: James Creech, Retired Member

October meeting: Usually we have some form of entertainment. Strippers, singers, comedians, whatever. This month our own Roger "Houdini" Warren did rope tricks, card tricks, coin tricks, etc. He even pulled a rabbit from the hat trick. But his best trick of all, was he made the hat disappear. Jim Nash said he didn't have it. Ray Walker he didn't have it. Glenn Dim Witt said, "I didn't even see the hat." Walter Dolehite took the rabbit home with him. Jerry Southerland did not win the door prize. Bob Ayers was too late to win. Dennis Rook, Charles Creech, Ted Webb, Goober Morris and Tony Loria, Sr. all were rolling on the floor spectators. Hope to see all next month at our third Wednesday of the month luncheon. Lies start at 11:30 A.M.
